Office of the R.I.I.

The revised draft amendments to the Articles of Association and Bye-laws of the East India Cotton Association, Ltd., at pages 5 to 23 ante are in order, subject to the following remarks:-

Amendment No. 3 at page 5:- The proposed amendments were passed by the Association at its Extraordinary General Meeting held on 1st November 1946. In para. 4 of his opinion No. 7190, dated 29th September 1945, the Remembrancer of Legal Affairs had advised that the date to be inserted at the two places in the proviso should be the date on which the amendments are first to be made public. The date would therefore be the date on which they are first published for general information under section 7 of the Bombay Cotton Contracts Act, 1932. 1st November 1946 would not in that case be the correct date. Finance Department is, therefore, requested to fill in the correct date accordingly.

Amendment No. 4 at page 6:- The amendments are free from legal objection. For the words "from his re'ection" the words "from the date of his rejection" may be substituted.

Amendment No. 7 at page 7 :- The amendment, as slightly amended, is in order.

Amendment Nos. 9,11, 13, 14, 15, 18, 19, and 21 at pages 7-10:- The amendments are verbal and are unobjectionable.

Amendment Nos. 8 and 9 on the page 21:- These have been amended so as to bring them into line with the other amendments. A slip for this purpose is substituted for amendments 8 and 9.

Amendment Nos. 11, 12, 13 and 16 at pages 21-24:- As formally amended are in order.

Formal amendments to other draft amendments have also been shown in pencil wherever necessary.
